Passcode: 075193

Instructions:

1. Online counselling will commence at 11 AM SHARP on September 15, 2026; however, candidates may join the online Zoom meeting from 10.30 AM to resolve any technical issues.
2. Online counselling will be held in order of NEET (UG)-2026 All India Rank (the list was uploaded on the website on Sep 02, 2026), and candidates will be asked for their choice of program for admission.
3. All eligible candidates are required to remain available online during the counselling and respond promptly with the camera turned on when called.
4. Candidates not available at the time of their turn will forfeit their chance of admission.
5. In case of non-availability of seats in the preferred program, a candidate may decline the admission offer during counselling.
6. It is the responsibility of the candidate to have proper network connectivity for online counselling. The institute will not be responsible if candidates cannot join the counselling due to poor connectivity.
7. There is no need to show any documents online during counselling. Physical verification of documents for selected candidates will be conducted at the time of reporting for admission on campus.
8. Candidates who have already been allotted a seat during first counselling and have reported for classes may attend the counselling to opt for a change in their admitted program, subject to availability of seats, if any. If they do not intend to change their allotted program, they may remain absent during the counselling process. Such candidates will retain the already allotted seat.

9. Candidates who declined their admission offers in the first counselling may attend the second counselling and opt for admission to their preferred program, subject to seat availability.
10. Candidates who were absent during the first counselling are NOT eligible to attend the second/subsequent round of counselling. However, a candidate (Sr. No. 13 in the eligibility list posted on the RIPANS website on Sep 02, 2026) who reported late during the first counselling due to a network issue shall be eligible for second counselling.
11. Selected candidates from the first counselling who did not pay their fees within the stipulated time have been considered as candidates forfeiting their allotted seats, and such candidates shall NOT be eligible for second counselling.
12. Selected candidates who have paid the fees and have not reported for document verification and classes will also be considered to have forfeited their allotted seats and shall NOT be eligible for the second round of counselling.
13. All the eligible candidates may attend online counselling; however, the candidates whose names appear within serial no. 1 to 100 in the eligibility list (posted on the RIPANS website on Sep 02, 2026) will be called first for attendance and seat allotment according to their rank in NEET (UG)-2026. Further candidates may be called for attendance and counselling, subject to the availability of vacant seats. They are advised to remain available online until all vacant seats are allotted.
14. Selected candidates from the second counselling shall be required to complete the admission process by Sep 17, 2026, at 5 PM, and report for document verification as well as classes by Sep 21, 2026.
15. Any seats remaining vacant after the second counselling will be surrendered to Northeast quota, and no further counselling will be conducted for outside Northeast quota seats.

Good Luck!
